Welcome to Greenville Seminary!

Each year in advance of the seminary's annual Spring Theology Conference, we set aside some time to welcome and orient prospective students who may be considering GPTS for their theological education. In 2017, we are again offering activities and opportunities to learn what GPTS is all about. Attending Encounter GPTS also entitles prospective students to participate in the main conference as our special guests with complimentary registration.

This is a unique opportunity to enhance your understanding about a seminary education and aid in your decision-making. (And get a free lunch!)

Our Mission and Distinctives

---

Why should you choose GPTS?

Our unique programs are designed to train passionate, articulate preachers of the Gospel in the doctrinal traditions of the historic faith of the Reformation. We train new generations to preach without compromising the claims of the Word of God and the time-honored Presbyterian and Reformed Confessions.

Our distinctives include unswerving commitments to:

- The Authority of Scripture
- Doctrinal Integrity
- Immersion in the Original Languages of the Bible
- Preservation of Our Christian Heritage
- Christ-centered, Heartfelt Preaching

Affordable Tuition

Greenville Seminary believes that when men are called to the ministry, they should not leave seminary with a mountain of debt. For this reason, our tuition is kept far below that of comparable institutions. We also have a tuition waiver program for church-sponsored students.

Realizing Your Calling

Something momentous occurs when God calls a man to preach. It sets into motion a series of events that will shape and mold this man to be a herald of the Most High God. While gifts for ministry are sovereignly given, the training a man receives to develop those gifts is critical. When handling the eternal truth of God's Word, the preacher must get it right. When God calls a man to preach, it is a high calling. He must begin well. This is our vision for you. If you are being called by God to the Gospel Ministry and seek to learn how to preach with conviction and without concession to the spirit of the age, consider Greenville Seminary.

"We do not see ourselves as theological innovators, but rather as guardians and defenders of the truth delivered." – Dr. Joseph A. Pipa, Jr., President
